S. Trowen Nagbe Distant Members' Fellowship Welcomes New Inductees

On the evening of Sunday, October 12, 2024, the S. Trowen Nagbe Distant Members' Fellowship held a special ceremony to formally induct its newest members. The event celebrated the fellowship's growth and centered on powerful themes of faith, new beginnings, and communal responsibility.

The program was officially opened with a reverent prayer by Rev. G. Morris Jarkloh, after Sis. Marfa Forkpah presented the agenda for the proceedings.

The Induction Ceremony

The high point of the evening was the formal introduction of the new members by Bro. Daysely Zulu, Chairman of the Membership Committee. Following the presentation, Rev. Levi Williams presided over the induction, offering a warm welcome and pledging the fellowship's steadfast support and encouragement for their spiritual journey. Rev. G. Morris Jarkloh then offered a dedicated prayer for the inductees, seeking divine guidance and blessings as they begin this new chapter.

A Message of New Beginnings

A moving exhortation was delivered by Rev. Henry Dolopei, following a scripture reading from Isaiah 43:16, 18-19 by Bro. James Yancy.

Rev. Dolopei's address focused on faith and perseverance, encouraging attendees to recognize that God is initiating new works in their lives. He urged the congregation to "disregard former events and concentrate on present opportunities."

The theme "SEE" was highlighted as a call to perceive God's actions, even when not immediately apparent, and to trust His guidance. The exhortation concluded with declarations for the assembly to:

- See new possibilities
- See new commitments
- See new transmissions
- See new beginnings

Words of Encouragement and Closing

The new members were further embraced by the fellowship's leadership. Bro. Dan Barclay, president of the new members' class, affirmed the importance of unity and mutual support.

President Dartor Bolo provided additional inspiration, referencing two key scriptures. He cited Matthew 9:37-38 ("The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few...") and Esther 4:1 to underscore the value of steadfast faith and the community's shared responsibility.

The ceremony concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks from Sis. Goumah Conde, who acknowledged all who contributed to the event's success. Rev. Levi Williams led the closing prayer, bringing a dignified and hopeful close to the celebration.
